

IT Is something that General Trevino even thinks his country and customs are civilized.

The Evening Herald

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, JUNE 24, 1916.

TRIBUNE-CITIZEN.
Vol. 26, No. 56.THE EVENING HERALD
VOL. 7, NO. 56

TREVINO BOASTS HE WILL ACCORD ADVANCING FORCE SAME TREATMENT

Mexican Commander at Chihuahua Cheerfully Asserts Boyd's Troop Annihilated: Says He's Ready for More.

PERSHING'S LAST REPORT SAYS FORCE WIPE OUT

Trevino Gives Out Statement Alleged to be Signed by Boyd's Mormon Scout; Columbus Thinks Officers Dead.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire
El Paso, Tex., June 24.—On instructions from the Mexican ambassador in Washington Mexican residents within the jurisdiction of the consulate at El Paso have been advised to return to Mexico, inasmuch as American residents in Mexico continue to leave Mexican territory. This was the announcement of the local consulate today.

Chihuahua, Mex., June 23—American columns have been advancing from the American held base in the direction of San Antonio and Ojo Caliente and General Jacinto Trevino has issued orders to attack them if they do not immediately retreat.

General Trevino said the Americans would get the same treatment that they received at Carrizal as he is determined to carry out his orders to the letter.

In this, he said, he had all his subordinates with him and they will stick with him in case of a rupture.

The Mexican commander said today that it seemed probable, inasmuch as General Pershing seemed ignorant of the fate of the Boyd column, that outside of five additional prisoners now being brought here, the Americans were annihilated, although it was possible more had escaped. General Pershing has wired here for the names of the dead and the prisoners.

It was officially announced today that none of the prisoners brought here will be hanged, that being the custom of a civilized country."

El Paso, Tex., June 24—Army officers here believe that the column bound for Ojo Caliente, which General Trevino has threatened to attack, probably is composed of the troops surviving the Carrizal battle.

Ojo Caliente is about forty miles southwest of Villa Mucamada.

San Antonio is fifty miles southeast of Nampiquipa, and the mission of the column preceding in that direction is not known here unless it be to search for bandits.

PERSHING'S FULL REPORT MAKES LOSS MORE SEVERE
San Antonio, Tex., June 24.—Complete reorganization of the two troops that were engaged in the disastrous combat Wednesday morning at Carrizal with Carranza's troops, and the practical annihilation of those actually in the fight was indicated in a report from General Pershing to General Funston today.

One packer and eight enlisted men

officers at general Funston's head-

FIVE LOSE LIVES AS FLAMES DESTROY NEEDLES CALIFORNIA MEXICANS MAY BE BLAMED

Fire Starting Hour After Mid night Destroys Four Business Houses and Two Hotels; Santa Fe Shops Saved; Thrilling Rescues Performed; Recent Brawl Between Mexicans and Americans Lends Color to Incendiary Theory.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire
Needles, Cal., June 24.—Fire swept the smoke-filled hotel halls in firemen and volunteers. Survivors were being checked over and search was being made for bodies today.

Needles lies on the banks of the Colorado river, the California-Arizona boundary. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad maintains large shops here, which were saved from the flames. The town has been the principal outfitting point north for the new mining camp of Oatman, Ariz. There are 3,000 inhabitants here. A large number of Mexicans reside at Needles. Wednesday night officers were sent here from San Bernardino, the county seat, to quell disturbances that resulted from a brawl between Mexicans and Americans.

Fifteen business houses and four residences fell before the flames. The fire started from an unknown cause an hour after midnight and spread rapidly among the wooden buildings. The firemen were unable to get it under control until after daylight.

Several heroic rescues were made

All But Forty of Boyd's Command Accounted for, Pershing Report Says

By Evening Herald Leased Wire
Washington, June 24.—General Funston reported to the war department late today that eleven survivors of the Carrizal fight had returned to General Pershing's line, sixteen were reported to have been picked up by the cavalry relief column, and seventeen to have been captured by the Mexicans, leaving unaccounted for forty of the eighty-four officers and men who were under Captain Boyd.

A dispatch from General Pershing, transmitted by General Funston, said none of the rescued troopers knew what had been the fate of their commander, and that their stories were so vague that it was impossible to get clear idea of what happened. The message referred to several troopers returning by another route, but officials thought it meant some of the sixteen picked up by the relief column.

Movement Initiated by Ecuador and Salvador to Unite Latin-America in Arbitration Move Coldly Received.

INDICATED UNCLE SAM WILL FINISH BUSINESS

Willing South Americans Should Influence Carranza to be Decent if They Can Find Way to Do It.

By Evening Herald Leased Wire
Washington, June 24.—News that some of the South and Central American republics were preparing to initiate offers of mediation in the crisis between the United States and Mexico drew from high officials here today a strong intimation that the United States, engaged only in protecting its people and territory, considered there was nothing to mediate, so far as the policy of this government was concerned.

The total number of men in the two troops was learned today to have been eighty-four. General Pershing, offering a summary of his information, and explaining that his conclusions were based on such information as he had secured from the stragglers and from press reports, called attention to the indications that there were fifty-seven missing and that press reports indicated fourteen of these were dead and forty-three were prisoners. General Pershing does not account in his report for the number wounded, but appeared to assume that all those wounded had been captured.

General Pershing reported that he had received no report from the commander of the two squadrons of the Eleventh cavalry that had been sent forward to rescue the remnant of the Tenth.

All those brought in by Lieutenant Meyer were horse holders and like those who came into camp yesterday, were not actually in the fight. They had difficulty, they said, in handling the horses when the various machine gun and rifle fire began and retreated before the conclusion of the engagement.

They had cared for such horses as they could round up after they got beyond the range of the fire, till the full number of mounts in their possession when encountered by Lieutenant Meyer being twenty-five.

The troopers told their stories before they had an opportunity to talk with stragglers who had preceded them. The accounts thus gave were said to have borne out all essential details those previously told.

They said they saw General Felix Gomez and his aide ride forward to parley with Captain Boyd, and later with Captain Meyer, and later with stragglers who had preceded them. The accounts thus gave were said to have borne out all essential details those previously told.

They said they saw General Felix Gomez and his aide ride forward to parley with Captain Boyd, and later with Captain Meyer, and later with stragglers who had preceded them. The accounts thus gave were said to have borne out all essential details those previously told.

The troopers told their stories before they had an opportunity to talk with stragglers who had preceded them. The accounts thus gave were said to have borne out all essential details those previously told.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

Although Ecuador and Salvador have ambitions their members to enter with their colleagues on the subject, the state department does not expect any immediate overtures from the body of Latin-American diplomats. It is understood that Argentina's Naon of Argentine telegraphed his government that nothing could be done at this time toward initiating mediation.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.

The best official development in connection with mediation talk comes when Dr. Rafael Zaldivar, minister from Salvador, received a telegram from his government instructing him to confer immediately with the minister from Ecuador, Dr. Gonzalo S. Correa, and other colleagues with a view to preventing open hostilities. Indications received from official quarters are that while it is considered there is nothing to mediate, the United States government would not look with disfavor should the South and Central American republics exert their influence upon General Carranza to perform the duties he should perform.